Dear parents and carers,

Re: Possible Strike Action Thursday 27th April and Tuesday 2nd May 2023

The National Education Union have confirmed two additional days of strikes which are planned to take place on the 27th April and 2nd May. The strike is happening because of a national dispute between the unions and the government and not because of any issues at our school.

We are working closely with our staff union representatives and the Local Authority to keep up to date with the situation. I would like to reiterate that we will do everything we can to keep classes open on these days.

Although staff are not required to inform the school of their intent to strike, we have requested that information so that we can plan how to keep the school open and running on these days. You may wish as a precaution to look at alternative childcare arrangements for these dates, just in case.

We are aiming to remain open and manage any absences due to strike action in house with minimal disruption to learning. If this changes, we will let you know as soon as we are able to.

Thank you for your ongoing support.

Best wishes,

Miss Cotchin
Headteacher
