Dear parents and carers,

Re: Sad passing of one of our school pets

Sadly, one of our chickens passed away in the night. She died peacefully in her sleep and was found in the coop this morning. All the other chickens seem well in themselves and are up this morning eating and drinking.

It is important that we support our pupils at this time. The FLO (Family Liaison Officers) are trained in bereavement and have created an information slide which the teachers will be sharing with the pupils. The pupils will also be reminded about who they can talk to in school if they need support. The FLO team will also offer any additional support needed.

Thank you for your support.

Best wishes,

Miss Cotchin
