Re: #ShowSomeLove campaign for schools

Dear parents and families,

This weekend sees the celebration of love with Valentines Day on Sunday.

You may have heard about the Show Some Love campaign in the news. You and your children can take part by drawing, painting or making a heart to put in your window to show your appreciation to key workers.

Here is link to a template Show Some Love template for your children to colour in, remember to take a photo and share it on social media using the hashtag #ShowSomeLove. We'd love to see your work too!

Best wishes,

Miss Cotchin
