Dear parents,

Re. Year 6 SATs final preparation

As you know the pupils will be taking their SATs from Monday next week which determines the start of their secondary education.

Please ensure they are well rested this weekend. If you feel your child is unwell and not 100% next week please do not send them in. They will be able to catch up on the test and we wish them to have the opportunity to do their best.

The pupils and staff have worked hard to ensure they are as prepared as possible. I am very proud of their hard work and perseverance in the face of adverse circumstances.

Thank you for supporting your child at home with the learning packs.

Best wishes
Miss Cotchin
